To our Coaches

- Its not all about setting up your own environment and not show any consideration to the others

- We must stay united and become a tight group - always be courteous and polite

- the children see you as their hero

- never make the game about you, we had our time, it's now the time of the child

A Childs Journey

(the good and the bad)

- when you see your child happy and achieving- these are the moments you cherish and are unforgettable

- you silently pause within yourself and thank god for this magic moment.

- when your child is sad because they were left out of the team completely - you get angry - these are the moments you are tested

- shine by acting in the correct manner; follow our policies and procedures, restrain yourself and speak to the club in the correct manner.

The club will help you;
from today we pledge our allegiance
